

How Plan Benefits Changed in January 1983

Major Medical

- The Plan's nervous and mental out-patient benefit has been changed to 70% of reasonable and customary charges and out-patient doctor visits are now limited to 50 visits per family member per calendar year.
- The Plan's nervous and mental disorder benefit has been modified to include the services of a psychiatric nurse and therapist with a Master's degree in psychology (M.S.) who are under the direct supervision of a psychiatrist.

Approved For Release 2005/08/02 : CIA-RDP86-00964R000200030011-1

HOW PLAN BENEFITS CHANGED IN JANUARY 1983

MAJOR MEDICAL

*

The Plan's nervous and mental out-patient benefit has been changed to 70% of reasonable and customary charges and out-patient doctor visits are now limited to 50 visits per family member per calendar year.

*

The Plan's nervous and mental disorder benefit has been modified to include the services of a psychiatric nurse and therapist with a Master's degree in psychology (M.S.) who are under the direct supervision of a psychiatrist.

Approved For Release 2005/08/02 : CIA-RDP86-00964R000200030011-1